A Red and a White from the Stewart Cellars

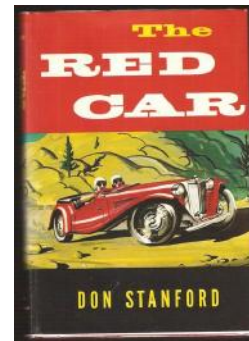

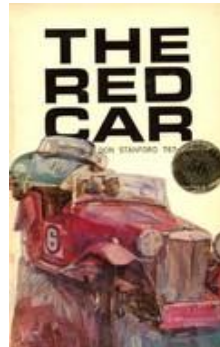

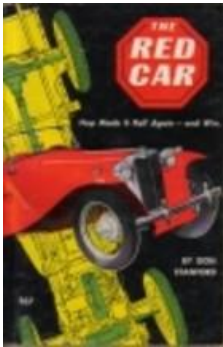

The Red Car by Don Stanford

2 copies, 1 hardcover, 1 softcover

Inside front cover -

*"I've only got a hundred dollars," Hap Adams told the bandage-wrapped racer.
Hap Adams is 16. The one thing he wants most in the world is the wrecked M.G. sports car.*

To Frenchy, the garage owner, he had said, "That car is not junk! I'll work like a horse for you, doing anything you say, if I can buy that car and get it fixed up by fall."

Back cover -

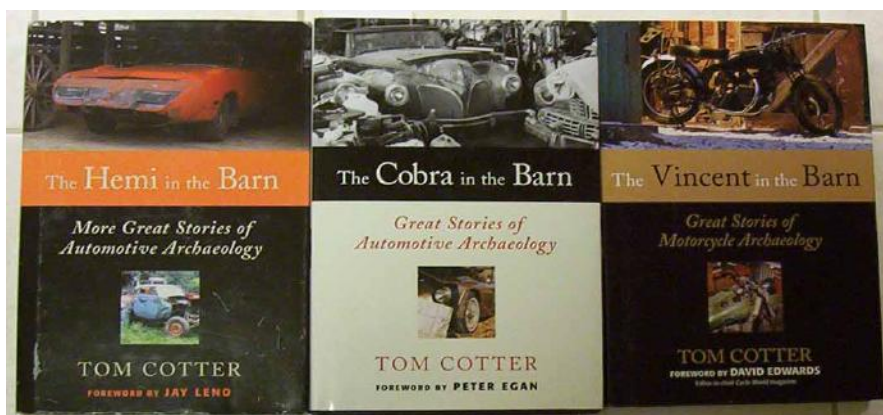

"Junk it!" - the insurance man said.

Hap first saw the red M.G. in Frenchy's garage. Enormous silvery wire wheels-rakish scarlet body. It had a personality all its own - arrogant, insolent, challenging.

When Hap saw the other side, he groaned; crushed, caved in.

"It cost you fifty dollars," said Frenchy.
